HALLOWEEN SAFETY

TRICK or TREAT

DON'T cross in the middle of the road.		DO cross at corners, using traffic signals and crosswalks.
DON'T walk in the middle of the road.		DO walk on sidewalks or paths. If there isn't one, walk facing traffic as far to the left as possible.
DON'T let young children trick-or-treat alone.		DO join children under the age of 12 for trick-or-treat.
DON'T wear dark costumes.		DO choose costumes with bright colors, decorate with reflective tape, and carry a flashlight.
DON'T let children wear masks that obstruct their vision.		DO choose face paint when possible.
DON'T drive fast.		DO drive slow with your headlights on, especially in residential neighborhoods.
DON'T drive distracted.		DO put down your phone and other devices to pay attention to the road.
