Get ready for an exciting weekend at the 23rd Annual West Virginia Fishing, Hunting & Outdoor Sports Show, taking place March 1 and 2 at Mylan Park in Morgantown. This year's event features many vendors for outdoor enthusiasts and families alike.

A new feature this year is a trout fishing pond. It's an interactive experience that invites attendees to try their hand at fishing. Whether you are an experienced angler or just starting out, this is a fun experience for all ages.

Returning this year is the interactive family-friendly activities. From live reptiles brought by the Zoology Zone Science Center of Hurricane, W.Va., to a seminar with different birds of prey.

Live Reptile Shows: Kids and adults alike can view amazing reptiles, including a huge yellow python named Brittany, an alligator, and various lizards and snakes. The shows will take place both Saturday and Sunday with educational talks on these creatures.

Birds of Prey: Laurel Fork Falconry will also be on hand on Sunday, featuring birds like red-tailed hawks and owls. They'll showcase these incredible birds and educate the public.

Kids' Activities: Keep the little ones entertained with a coloring contest and a special appearance by Smokey the Bear.

What's a great event without great food? The Mylan Park venue will feature a variety of food options, including indoor vendors offering jerky, pretzels, coffee, ice coffee, popcorn and Amish foods. Outside, food trucks will also be present and serve classic concession foods, as well as wild game options from Almost Heaven's Smokehouse.

The event is ideal for families, hunters, fishermen and outdoor lovers. Ticket costs are:

- $12 for adults (ages 13 and up)
- $5 for kids (ages 6-12)
- Free for children under 6
- $5 for veterans with proof of service

Whether you're looking to discover new gear, learn outdoor skills or simply enjoy a weekend of fun, there's plenty to explore. As always, the show will feature prize giveaways every hour. And at the end of the show Sunday, four grand prizes will be given away, including:

- A 13-gun corner cabinet from Our Family Craft Shop, Amish Crafted ($1,670 value)
- An Edison Electric Bike from High Q Fun Cars ($1,599 value)
- A Blue Wave Big Fish 103 Pedal Drive Kayak from Mountaineer RV ($2,000 value)
- A bird hunt for two with an overnight cabin stay at Hunter Ridge Wing and Clay in Rock Cave, WV ($900 value)

Featured TV Personalities

Fans of outdoor TV shows will be excited to meet some familiar faces. The event will feature personalities from popular shows, including Ted and Amber from “The Chase,” Hunt Chef, Whitetail Frenzy, Bad Outdoors and Josh White's Outdoor Adventures. Don't miss your chance to chat with them and learn from their experiences!

Show Hours

- Saturday, March 1: 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.
- Sunday, March 2: 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This year's event is presented by Can-am, and they'll have a display at the show, showcasing their outdoor products.

Mark your calendars and get ready for a weekend of fun, education and adventure. Whether you're an outdoor enthusiast, looking for family-friendly activities, or just want to have a great time, the 23rd Annual West Virginia Fishing, Hunting & Outdoor Sports Show is the place to be!

Experience 'The Chase' with the Nestors

Family educates and entertains TV audiences about hunting

BY CASSIDY ROARK

CRoark@DominionPost.com

Appearing at the West Virginia Fishing, Hunting & Outdoor Sports Show this year is the beloved hunting TV show, "The Chase with Ted and Amber." They strive to entertain and educate their audiences for over a decade. With their stomping grounds being the "great state of West Virginia," they are passionate about the beautiful outdoors of Almost Heaven.

The Nestor family, Ted, Amber and their 10-year-old daughter Kylie, take on thrilling hunting adventures across the country together. Traveling to Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia, Kansas, Texas and many other states, they chase anything from whitetails to mule deer, coyotes, hogs, turkeys, prairie dogs and everything with over 11 years of experience.

Ted and Amber have brought their dynamic family-led show to national networks like The Pursuit Channel, Carbon TV and WDTV.

The Nestors are passionate about showcasing the diversity of hunting methods, as they pursue their adventures with air guns, air bows, compound bows, crossbows, rifles and shotguns.

Their show emphasizes the importance of conservation, family involvement and getting children outdoors. Their goals are clear: to inspire others to embrace the outdoors and experience the joy of the hunt.

"Not every hunt is easy, but it is always worth the chase," says Ted, reflecting on the challenges and rewards of their outdoor lifestyle.

Emphasizing on Amber's abilities, "not saying this because she's my wife, but I would put her up against most men when it comes to hunting. I wouldn't want anybody else to have my back. I can tell you that."

At the Morgantown outdoor show, visitors will have the chance to meet the Nestors in person, hear their stories and check out merchandise, air guns, mounts from their hunts and even one of Ted's prized coyote mounts.

"It's not about being a celebrity, I am not a country singer, it is about building a community," Ted says.

"We're just a family doing what we love, and we appreciate everyone who supports us along the way."

Whether you're an experienced hunter or just getting started, the Nestor family invites you to come by their booth to connect with them and hear about their adventures. With a passion for the outdoors and a deep love for their home state, the Nestors bring a fresh, family-oriented perspective to the world of hunting.

Do not miss the chance to meet them at the West Virginia Fishing, Hunting & Outdoor Sports Show and learn more about their chase of the great outdoors!

Chef Jeremy Critchfield has combined a lifetime in the outdoors and a 5-star culinary career to bring you HuntChef, a resource to help everyone better prepare what they harvest from the woods and waters or the grocery store and garden! #wildflavor

Enhance your harvest meal with sauces, seasoning and knives from HuntChef

BY CASSIDY ROARK

CRoark@DominionPost.com

Experience HuntChef at the West Virginia Fishing, Hunting & Outdoor Sports Show, where the brand with an #eatwhatyoukill hashtag will be showcasing its wide range of products.

Located just 15 minutes from the West Virginia border, HuntChef has become a great addition for outdoor enthusiasts in the region. From its signature seasonings to its sauces as well as professional-grade cleavers, you'll find a wide variety of items to enhance your culinary skills.

Whether you are looking to spice up your wild game dishes or prepare yourself with quality tools for the field, HuntChef has something for everyone. This is its fifth year at the show, and its local presence continues to grow with over 25 retailers within 20 miles of its Farmington, Pa., headquarters carrying its products. This event is a perfect chance to meet the team, learn about its offerings and pick up some great culinary tools.

In addition to marketing products, HuntChef's Jeremy Critchfield is co-host of the popular TV show, Mountain Top Outdoors, which airs its fifth season on the Sportsman Channel. The show celebrates everything outdoors, offering exciting hunting content and tips on cooking wild game.

The team will also be hosting a live cooking seminar at the Morgantown outdoors show Saturday, where they will demonstrate wild game recipes and share personal techniques for cooking your harvest to perfection.

Join them at the show to discover more about the mission to support the outdoors and help the next generation connect with nature.

"It is all about making your wild game taste great while supporting a growing local event that highlights outdoor traditions," Critchfield said.

Be sure to stop by HuntChef's booth to grab some goods and learn how to properly take care of your harvest.

Hunter Ridge Wing & Clay offers a unique experience

BY CASSIDY ROARK
CROark@DominionPost.com

For bird hunting enthusiasts, Greg Moats' bird hunting preserve in Rock Cave, W.Va., offers a unique experience in a beautiful setting. As the first preserve of its kind in the area opened in 2022, this destination is perfect for anyone looking to immerse themselves with bird hunting and surround themselves with nature.

Spanning 320 acres, Hunter Ridge Wing & Clay features a mix of planted food plots and diverse habitats designed to attract and sustain bird populations making sure there is a unique and authentic hunting experience. The property's setup includes a mile-and-a-half wooded course as well as wide open fields to test your skills.

Whether you bring your own bird dog or rely on one of the preserve's well-trained dogs, hunters of all skill levels will feel right at home. Guests simply choose the number of birds they'd like to hunt, and the team at the preserve will ensure everything is prepared for you.

After a long day of hunting, relax in one of the preserve's two cabins. The larger cabin can accommodate up to 13 guests, making it ideal for groups or families, while the more intimate honeymoon cabin offers a peaceful retreat for two. Both cabins are equipped with hot tubs to relax in after a long day. The season goes from the end of deer hunting season in December to the end of April.

In addition to standard bird hunting experiences, the preserve offers unique events like tower shoots.

Visitors can learn more about this exciting outdoor destination at the upcoming outdoor show in Morgantown, where Moats will have a booth with more information on what they offer. Whether you're a first-time hunter or a seasoned veteran, this preserve promises an unforgettable experience.

No hunting license is required, and the preserve is open to out-of-state visitors looking to try their hand at bird hunting for the first time.

For more information on rates, availability and booking your hunt or cabin stay, contact the preserve directly.

Catch some fun with W.N.C. Mountain Trout Fishing

BY CASSIDY ROARK

CRoark@DominionPost.com

Looking for a fun, hands-on outdoor experience for the kids at the Morgantown Fishing, Hunting, and Outdoor Sports Show? Make sure to stop by the W.N.C. Mountain Trout Fishing booth! They'll have a portable trout fishing pond set up, stocked with a variety of trout for children to catch and release.

Jim Hill, the owner and operator of W.N.C. Mountain Trout Fishing is passionate about bringing the joy of fishing to young generations.

"The best part of doing this is that I've seen lots of kids catch their first fish," Hill said.

The pond will be stocked with different sizes of trout, and for an added thrill, there will be four golden trout mixed in! If a golden trout is caught, the lucky angler will receive a special prize.

W.N.C. Mountain Trout Fishing provides everything needed for a successful fishing trip at the show—fishing poles and bait.

There will be personnel on hand to assist. Whether it is for unhooking a fish or teaching young anglers the basics, the team is there to help kids of all experience levels.

This is a catch-and-release activity, so everyone gets the opportunity to try their hand at fishing and have fun in a safe, educational environment.

Don't miss this exciting and memorable attraction at the Morgantown Outdoor Show!
